I had joined journalism as a profession in 2012. Firstly, I have started my duties in Print Media since 2012. I had started working as a group Editor in Voice Of Asia International news agency. My father is the Chief Editor and owner of the above said news agency. My father retained me as a group editor and management of the organization. My journalism beginning was from my father,s lap and with the passage of time ,I wrote columns, articles and reports ,which published in daily newspapers of Pakistan

In, 2014,we started a monthly magazine Rabta International, and I was also group editor of that too.

At the end of 2017, I am very much proud to tell you that Voice of Asia International News Agency is a biggest name here in Pakistan with the great efforts of my father Mr. Muhammad Jamil and myself. There is a great honor for me and my team that we have published more than one million News, article, stories, reports and interviews on website.
